

LAS VEGAS A DAY IN THE LIFE

WITHIN ONLY A FIVE-MILE STRETCH on Las Vegas Boulevard, you'll discover some of the most spectacular resorts in the world, tons of unique dining options, once-in-a-lifetime attractions and, of course, our 550-foot observation wheel. But we know that all of these choices can feel a bit overwhelming, especially if it's your first visit. Lucky for you, we've created the Vegas Challenge - the best guide for how to spend 24 hours in Vegas. Of course, to enjoy Vegas safely, we have health and wellness measures in place so that you have a truly a one-of-a-kind experience.

MORNING

BIG APPLE COASTER

For those who love to feel the adrenaline pumping through their veins, you have to take a seat on the Big Apple Coaster at New York-New York. It will certainly get your morning off to an eye-opening start.

NEON MUSEUM

Now it's time to move on to your first attraction of the day, the Neon Museum, located in Downtown Las Vegas. The Neon Museum is one of the most iconic attractions in Las Vegas. Walk through the Neon Boneyard and check out many of the Strip's amazing retired neon signs.

Neon Museum

NOON

Forum Shops

BELLAGIO FOUNTAINS & CONSERVATORY

Next, make your way to watch the famous Fountains of Bellagio, and don't forget to snap a photo for Instagram. But don't leave Bellagio just yet. Check out its Conservatory and Botanical Gardens while you're in the area. This beautiful seasonal display changes with the holidays and always offers a new setup every few months.

FORUM SHOPS

It's time for a little shopping or sightseeing at The Forum Shops at Caesars, whichever you prefer. Inside, you'll find stores for Gucci, John Varvatos, Louis Vuitton and more, as well as Roman statues, a replica of the Trevi Fountain, the Fall of Atlantis fountain show, and a hand-painted sky ceiling that gives the illusion that it's always daytime.

GORDON RAMSAY PUB & GRILL

Across the street from the Flamingo, within Caesars Palace, you'll find Gordon Ramsay Pub & Grill - the most authentic English pub experience in Las Vegas. Created by the award-winning Hell's Kitchen host and chef Gordon Ramsay, say no more. Its centerpiece is a striking bar with over 60+ beers on tap and a backdrop reminiscent of iconic British telephone booths.

EVENING

CHANDELIER LOUNGE

If you're still up for more Vegas, then next, you have to visit the Chandelier Lounge at The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas. It's one of the most legendary lounges ever to grace the Strip. This three-story gem dripping in chandelier crystals is something you definitely won't see anywhere else.

LAKESIDE AT WYNN

After a drink or two, or three, head to dinner at Lakeside located in Wynn. Feast like a royal with award-winning chef David Walzog, as he transforms each dish into a culinary masterpiece. For a truly unforgettable meal, ask to be seated outside on the patio and soak in the lush Mediterranean views between each savory bite.

Chandelier Lounge

The Lakeside at Wynn

NIGHT

THE DORSEY AT THE VENETIAN

Start your night at The Dorsey Cocktail Lounge, located inside The Venetian. The Dorsey will surely make a lasting impression. With its elegant bookshelves, cozy fireplace, and cocktails that are sure to pack a punch, it's the perfect venue to meet up with old friends.

THE STRAT

After you've finished sipping cocktails, make your way north on the Strip for the night's last activity. A little bit of gambling at The STRAT Hotel, Casino & SkyPod.

GOLDEN NUGGET - SUITE

We realize you're probably exhausted by now, which is why we've picked two excellent downtown hotels and casinos for you to rest your feet. You can either live it up at The Downtown Grand, a chic-modern hotel located at the end of Fremont Street, or treat yourself by booking a two-story suite at the Golden Nugget. Whichever you choose, both are sure to leave you speechless.

The Dorsey

Golden Nugget