

A DAY IN

The Palm Beaches

The Best Way to Meet in Florida

WELCOME TO WEST PALM BEACH

Palm Beach International Airport

When you land at Palm Beach International Airport (PBI), you're only 3 miles - less than 5 minutes - from the heart of Downtown West Palm Beach and the Convention Center!

Palm Beach County Convention Center

The GBAC STAR Accredited PBCCC features 350,000 sq. ft. of flexible meeting space, spacious pre-function areas boasting large windows overlooking the city, a reimagined outdoor courtyard - Skyroom - opening early 2021, and a direct connection to the 400-room Hilton West Palm Beach.

Convention, Arts & Entertainment District

West Palm Beach's Convention, Arts & Entertainment District offers endless options - in walking distance - to enjoy when meetings aren't in session, from discovering the local culinary scene to exploring The Palm Beaches breathtaking natural beauty or experience one of our 200+ cultural institutions.

WEST PALM BEACH

Morning

A beach stroll and watching the sunrise over the Atlantic Ocean is just a short walk from Downtown WPB, grab breakfast at one of the popular local cafés – like Johan's Joe, offering a modern twist on a Swedish coffee house, or grab a coffee to-go and explore the Art in Public Places murals along Clematis Street – make sure to stop for a selfie with Einstein!

Afternoon

Rent scooters and take a ride down the Intracoastal at the Downtown Waterfront to enjoy the fresh air, or stroll through the Norton Museum of Art's Sculpture Garden and renowned collection of art works to spark creativity. Or, take a group to Grandview Public Market, where pop-up culinary restaurants offer something for everyone's taste!

Evening
