COUNTRY MUSIC HALL OF FAME AND MUSEUM

MORNING

Start your day in Music City with a hearty breakfast at Biscuit Love (highly recommend the Bonuts or the East Nasty) or grab a coffee at Bongo Java and hit the ground running exploring the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum.

BONUTS FROM BISCUIT LOVE

After a morning at the museum, head over to Nashville's new Fifth + Broadway project to tour the new National Museum of African American Music (NMAAM). If you have worked up an appetite from a morning of exploring check out one of the many local restaurants at Fifth + Broadway's Assembly Food Hall – including favorite local eateries Edley's BBQ, Prince's Hot Chicken, The Pharmacy Burger, Slim & Husky's Pizza, and many more.

A DAY IN MUSIC CITY

AFTERNOON

To start your afternoon, head over to The Parthenon at Centennial Park, which is a full-scale replica of the Greek Parthenon, for a leisure walk. Then head to The Ryman Auditorium or the Grand Ole Opry for a tour (or plan to see a show in the evening). Now that you've been fully immersed in the history of Nashville, it's time for a fun evening out on the town.

EVENING

Head over to the 12South Neighborhood to explore the shops and murals before grabbing dinner at Urban Grub. After dinner, plan to sit back and relax with a drink and listen to the stories behind some of Nashville's biggest hits at a songwriter night at the Bluebird Cafe or the Listening Room Cafe.

If you're up for a late night and some live music, head to Broadway to experience the late-night energy and excitement Nashville has to offer!

There are so many things to do and see in Nashville!

This day in the city is perfect for first timers and old pro's alike, but if you are looking for more of what Nashville has to offer, please visit our website to explore and plan your next trip to Music City.
