

ORLANDO: A DAY IN THE LIFE

Whether you've visited Orlando once or dozens of times, you probably haven't taken advantage of all our unique experiences. The reason being, it now takes more than 121 days to really enjoy our open-air theme parks, thrilling attractions, acclaimed dining and nightlife, action-packed sports, wild outdoor adventures, engaging arts and culture, and other unforgettable things to do.

Given that it can take multiple days to fully explore even one theme park, we've created the ultimate guide to spending 24 hours off the beaten path in the Theme Park Capital of the World, where enhanced health and safety measures await at every step of your journey.

But remember: There's always more to do in Orlando!

MORNING

BREAKFAST LIKE A LOCAL

Your resort is sure to offer an impressive morning spread, but if you want to fuel up like a local, head to Se7en Bites. Part of our trendy Milk District neighborhood close to downtown, and featured on Food Network's Diners, Drive-Ins and Dives, this from-scratch eatery specializes in nostalgic Southern comfort food — particularly giant portions of breakfast and brunch fare.

SWAN BOAT RIDES & MORE

It's just a short trip to your next destination: beautiful Lake Eola Park in downtown Orlando. Hop aboard one of the park's rentable, swan-shaped paddleboats for a relaxing, self-guided tour around its namesake lake. To hear many locals tell it, you haven't really experienced Orlando until you've taken one of these beauties for a spin! Once you're done, check out downtown's Orange County Regional History Center or Orlando Urban Trail; you'll be glad you did!

AFTERNOON

LUNCH & FUN ON I-DRIVE

Every city in America has a proverbial Main Street, but few of them have as much to see and do as Orlando's International Drive, aka I-Drive. Minutes from the theme parks, it's home to amazing attractions and sensational shopping you won't want to miss. For your lunchtime needs, I-Drive boasts some of Central Florida's best dining, including — and true to its name — flavors from around the world.

EXPLORE DISNEY SPRINGS®

Minutes from I-Drive, the open-air Disney Springs® is Walt Disney World® Resort's all-in-one retail, dining and entertainment district, with free parking and admission. Get your game on at The NBA Experience, take a ride in an Amphicar, or soar high above it all aboard the Aerophile helium balloon. And if you're still hungry, Disney Springs® features Orlando's largest concentration of celebrity chefs — which may play into your dinner plans, as you'll soon see!

ORLANDO'S BEST DINING

Orlando has a wealth of celebrity chef-headed restaurants, including José Andrés' JALEO, Rick Bayless' Frontera Cocina, Masaharu Morimoto's Morimoto Asia, Art Smith's Homecomin' Kitchen, and Wolfgang Puck Bar & Grill at Disney Springs®, plus Todd English's bluezoo and Primo by Melissa Kelly. But gourmets won't want to skip our local James Beard honorees, either, such as Scott Hunnel of Victoria & Albert's, Brandon McGlamery of Prato, Henry Moso of Kabooki Sushi, and James & Julie Petrakis of The Ravenous Pig. Still more great dining awaits at I-Drive's Pointe Orlando and nearby Restaurant Row. Bon appétit!

ENJOY AN OUTDOOR EVENING!

CATCH A LIVE SHOW

Thanks to downtown's Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts and Amway Center, House of Blues at Disney Springs®, Hard Rock Live® at Universal CityWalk, to name a few, Orlando doesn't lack for world-class performing art venues — or world-class talent to headline them. Between Broadway shows, live concerts, comedy and more, it's showtime!

LATE NIGHT

NIGHTLIFE AT UNIVERSAL CITYWALK

An open-air entertainment, dining and shopping district with free admission, Universal CityWalk at Universal Orlando Resort invites you to literally get your groove on at the groove, which boasts the latest in sound and special effects. Or, bust a move at Red Coconut Club; a lavish, 2-story ultra-lounge with a pinch of tiki chic and a dash of Cuban flair. Prefer singing to dancing? Belt out your favorites with a live band at CityWalk's Rising Star!

WRAP IT UP WITH A NIGHTCAP

There's only one way to end a day as perfect as this: handcrafted cocktails! From I-Drive's Blue Martini and Mango's Tropical Cafe, to The Edison and Jock Lindsey's Hangar Bar at Disney Springs®, to Jimmy Buffett's® Margaritaville® and Fusion Bistro Sushi & Sake Bar™ at Universal CityWalk, you'll never run out of unforgettable places to enjoy unforgettable cocktails in Orlando. Bottoms up!
